

POS Device

The Z91 device includes a barcode scanning feature, essential for allowing our existing Miracle Cash & More members to use their cryptocurrency holdings during transactions. This feature, enables us to provide services to both Miracle Cash & More members and other customers with memberships in different cryptocurrency exchanges with one device.

Furthermore, the device's printing ability allows for creating transaction receipts, while it also has the capability to generate a Z report.