

Features

One of the other key features of Miracle Pay, is the ability to convert merchants' cryptocurrency earnings into fiat currency and send them via bank transfer. In Europe, this process can be completed on the same day, ensuring fast and efficient payment processing.

Even in other countries, where the process may take up to 48 hours, the conversion and transfer process is still quick and reliable.

This feature provides businesses with the flexibility and convenience to manage their finances effectively and efficiently.