POS Device

At the project's start, we chose the Z91 model as our selected POS device. This device showcases touch-enabled functionality and operates on the Android platform. It provides smooth internet connectivity through wireless networks and can also connect to the web via a 4G-enabled SIM card.